

I am writing to complain about the plan to weaken the "No Call" law. Our quality of life has improved immensely since our state law was enacted. What you are doing is giving the banks/credit card companies a green light to harass people who have canceled services. The public is tired of having to fight the government to protect us from special interest groups.